

NSfK research seminar 2019

Confirmed keynotes – preliminary titles

Iceland:

Maria Rún Bjarnadóttir, Ph.D.-student, University of Sussex

Preliminary title: Threats and hate at the internet in a gender and human rights perspective

Norway:

Mareile Kaufmann, post.doc., University of Oslo

Preliminary title: Deviance and the digital: Criminology in the digitalized era

Sweden:

Erik Wennerström, Generaldirektör, Brottsförebyggande Rådet (BRÅ)

Confirmed title: Cybersecurity (as a democratic challenge)

Finland:

Michael Laakasuo, post.doc./principal investigator, University of Helsinki

Preliminary title: AI & machine morality (in a criminological context)

Denmark:

Claus Birkelyng, director, National Cyber Crime Center, Danish National Police.

Preliminary title: The Umbrella case (case against more than 1000 young people for sharing a video with sexual content involving young people under the age of 15)

Jakob Demant, associate professor, Copenhagen University

Preliminary title: Digital crimes of the young

Please note that Best article award winner Nordic Criminology (JSSCCP) will be announced at the seminar.