

Scandinavian Research Council for Criminology
Nordisk Samarbejdsråd for Kriminologi

NSfK's 61st Research Seminar 2019

8th – 10th May 2019

Hotel Konventum, Helsingør

Theme: Crime, crime control and criminology in the digital era

Program

Wednesday May 8

- 10.00-13.00 Arrival by public transport to the hotel and check-in
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-14.15 Welcome – Felipe Estrada (S), Chairperson NSfK and Danish member of NSfK Council
- 14.15-15.15 Claus Birkelyng (DK) chief superintendent, National Cyber Crime Center, Danish National Police
The Umbrella case
- 15.15-15.45 Coffee break
- 15.45-17.15 Sessions 1st slot
- 17.30-18.15 Jakob Demant (DK) associate professor, Copenhagen University
Digital transgressions and technology facilitated crimes. Towards an understanding of logics and consequences of platform based crimes
- 19.30- Dinner

Thursday May 9

09.00-10.30 Ethical perspectives:

- Maria Rún Bjarnadóttir (IS) Ph.D.-student, University of Sussex
Online abuse in a gendered perspective

- Michael Laakasuo (F) Adjunct professor of Cognitive Science, University of Helsinki
Moral psychological perspective on Profiling Algorithms -- How people feel about false positives in preventive arrests initiated by AIs and other interesting things

10.30-11.00 Coffee break 10:30-12:30 Parallell meeting with Contact Secretaries
11.00-12.30 Sessions 2nd slot
12.30-13.30 Lunch
13.30-15.00 Sessions 3rd slot
15.00-15.30 Coffee break 15:00- 17:10 Parallell Council meeting
15.30-17.00 Sessions 4th slot
17.00-17.15 Break
17.15-17.45 Prize winner Klara Hermansson (S) Best Article 2018
17.45-18.15 Gathering with a drink – Anita Heber (S) presents the “new” journal
20.00- Dinner

Friday May 10

09.30-11.00 Sessions 5th slot
11.00-11.30 Coffee break
11.30-12.15 Mareile Kaufmann (N), postdoc University of Oslo
Deviance and the digital: Criminology in the digitalized era
12.15-12.30 Closure, Felipe Estrada (S)
12.30 Take-away lunch
Departure
Thank you!