

Scandinavian Research Council for Criminology
Nordisk Samarbejdsråd for Kriminologi

NSfK's 61st Research Seminar 2019

8th – 10th May 2019

Hotel Konventum, Helsingør

Theme: Crime, crime control and criminology in the digital era

Program

Wednesday May 8

10.00-13.00 Arrival by public transport to hotel Konventum and check-in

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-14.15 Welcome – Felipe Estrada (S), Chairperson NSfK and Danish member of NSfK Council

14.15-15.15 Claus Birkelyng (DK) chief superintendent, National Cyber Crime Center, Danish National Police

The Umbrella case

Chair: Heidi Mork Lomell

15.15-15.45 Coffee break

15.45-17.15 Sessions 1st slot

Workshop 1, Chair: Linda Kjær Minke

i. Emma Villman: Desistance expectations in Finnish open prisons: a story of mobile phones

ii. Ingrid Lundeberg & Peter Scharff Smith: Digital Capital in Prison? - ICT's and mobile phones behind bars.

iii. Charlotte Mathiassen: Establishing a women's prison in Denmark - A Common cause?

Workshop 2, Chair: Paul Larsson

i. Guðmundur Ævar Oddson: Trust in the police among immigrants and non-immigrants in Iceland

ii. Timo Korander: Police Culture – 'Still alive and kicking'.

iii. Sofia Wikman: Att förebygga hot och våld i svenska statliga myndigheter - en jämförelse mellan två perspektiv på säkerhetsarbete.

Workshop 3, Chair: Anne Alvesalo-Kuusi

i. Anniina Jokinen: Defining exploitation and trafficking in the context of marriage - challenges and responses.

ii. Annick Prieur: Trafficking to prostitution: What do the victims get out of investigation and prosecution?

iii. Polina Smiragina-Ingelstrom: Trafficking in Persons for the Purpose of Organ Removal: A Comparative Case Study of Organ Donation Policies in Denmark and Sweden and Their Impact on Illicit Organ Trade.

17.30-18.15 Jakob Demant (DK) associate professor, Copenhagen University

Digital crimes of the young

Chair: Rannveig Þórisdóttir

19.30- Dinner

Thursday May 9

09.00-10.30 Ethical perspectives:

- Maria Rún Bjarnadóttir (IS) Ph.D.-student, University of Sussex
Online abuse in a gendered perspective

- Michael Laakasuo (F) Adjunct professor of Cognitive Science, University of Helsinki
Moral psychological perspective on Profiling Algorithms -- How people feel about false positives in preventive arrests initiated by AIs and other interesting things

Chair: Felipe Estrada

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

10:30-12:30 Parallell meeting with Contact Secretaries

11.00-12.30 Sessions 2nd slot

Workshop 4, Chair: Kolbrún Benediktsdóttir

i. Nina Sunde: The digital forensic detectives' role in the construction of digital evidence in criminal investigation.

ii. Paul Larsson: Illegal hunting of Wolves; the use of New Methods of Investigation.

iii. Anne Alvesalo-Kuusi: The infiltration of security threats in Finnish legislation.

Workshop 5, Chair: Peter Scharff Smith

i. Erik Hannerz: Playing in the yard: Graffiti writers' use of surveillance.

ii. Heidi Mork Lomell: An exploration of the conceptual distinction between mass and targeted surveillance.

iii. Kim Moeller: Scientometric of Nordic Criminology 2008-2017.

Workshop 6, Chair: Hans Jørgen Engbo

i. Jenny Maria Lundgaard: A police gaze from afar and above? Introducing drones in the Norwegian Police.

ii. Lars Nørr & Marc Theis: Policing Mental Illness.

12.30-13.30 Lunch

Thursday May 9 (continued)

13.30-15.00 Sessions 3rd slot

Workshop 7, Chair: Arnt Even Hustad

- i. Liila Holmberg: Constructing the prisoner-subject through therapeutic practices? A case study of the 'New Way' program for sexual offenders.
- ii. Annette Olesen: Ex-prisoners' barriers to justice.
- iii. Rune Ellefsen: Managing militant Islamism: A retrospective process-oriented perspective.

Workshop 8, Chair: Caroline Mellgren

- i. Tanya Karoli Christensen/Robert Leonard: Forensic linguistics and cybercrime.
- ii. Fanney Björk Frostadóttir & Dagmar Ösp Vésteinsdóttir: Identity theft - is there a need for a specific legislation?
- iii. Peter Kruize: The impact of ID-theft.

Workshop 9, Chair: Anette Storgaard

- i. Sarah van Mastrigt: The Konfliktråd Impact Project (KIP): Preliminary pilot study findings and reflections.
- ii. Electronic monitoring as a community sanction: offenders' experiences and perceived legitimacy.
- iii. Miisa Törölä: Making Sense of Reduced Criminal Responsibility – Subjective and Institutional Consequences of 'Partial Sanity.'

15.00-15.30 Coffee break

15:00- 17:10 Parallell Council meeting

15.30-17.00 Sessions 4th slot

Workshop 10, Chair: Annette Olesen

- i. Lisa Flower: Direct from the courtroom: live-reporting from trials and its emotional challenges.
- ii. Regina Järg-Tärno: Lost and found in translation. Vilka utmaningar och möjligheter medför den digitala eran för rättstolkningen?
- iii. Ragnheiður Bragadóttir: Sex uden samtykke.

Thursday May 9 (continued)

15.30-17.00 Sessions 4th slot

Workshop 11, Chair: Kim Møller

i. Thomas Søgård: Drug markets in flux: Buyer motives for sourcing illegal drugs from 'ring and bring' delivery services.

ii. Silje Anderdal Bakken: Online markets for illegal drugs: A discussion of national differences within the Nordic countries.

iii. My Lilja: Russian Parliament Discourses on Drugs.

Workshop 12, Chair: Lena Roxell

i. Samuel Hardy: Online trafficking of cultural objects from crisis zones and conflict zones and open-source analysis of the illicit trade.

ii. Helgi Gunnlaugsson: Is Cybercrime Increasing in Iceland?

iii. Erik Modin & Malte Conrad: Datadrevet måludpegning mod transnational kriminalitet.

17.00-17.15 Break

17.15-17.45 Prize winner Klara Hermansson (S) Best Article 2018

17.45-18.15 Gathering with a drink – editor Anita Heber (S) presents the “new” journal
Nordic Journal of Criminology

20.00- Dinner

Friday May 10

09.30-11.00 Sessions 5th slot

Workshop 13, Chair: Linda Kjær Minke

i. Lena Roxell: Klostervägen - Ett vägskäl för långtidsdömda fångar.

ii. Hedda Giertsen: Hvis fængsler er uhyrlige.

iii. Annemette Nyborg Lauritsen: Livline til verden - den grønlandske bistandsværgeordning for forvaringsdømte og retspsykiatriske patienter.

iv. Hans Jørgen Engbo: Isolation som disciplinærstraf - eller som straf?

Workshop 14, Chair: Annick Prieur

i. Maria von Bredow: They will Always find me - North African children on the move, victims and perpetrators in the era of social media.

ii. Anette Storgaard: Børn og unge i krydsfeltet mellem støtte og straf.

iii. Emma-Lisa Gångare: Vad händer med välfärdsstaten när barn misstänks för brott? En kvalitativ studie om politik, logik och praktik.

Workshop 15, Chair: Janne Kivivuori: Introduction to the “Nordic Homicide from Past to Present”: Researching lethal violence in deep historic time

Presentations:

Mona Rautelin: Homicide in 17th century Denmark, Finland and Sweden – First Findings and Tentative Interpretations

Jeppe Büchert Netterstrøm: Coding homicides from early modern court records: Preliminary results and methodological challenges

Mikkel Møller Okholm, Martti Lehti, Guðbjörg Bergsdóttir, Heidi Engvold, Sven Granath and Jónas

Jónasson: Homicides in Contemporary Nordic Countries

Jónas Orri Jónasson & Gudbjorg Bergsdottir: Icelandic Homicides in the 20th Century

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-12.15 Mareile Kaufmann (N) postdoc, University of Oslo

Deviance and the digital: Criminology in the digitalized era

12.15-12.30 Closure, NSfK Chairperson Felipe Estrada (S)

12.30 Take-away lunch

Departure. Approx 1 pm NSfK bus departs for Helsingør trainstation and Copenhagen airport. Exact departure time to be confirmed.

Thank you!