

Workshop on register-based criminology in Northern Europe, Stockholm University, 19–20 August 2019.

Programme

Monday, 19 aug: Department of Criminology & Aula Magna (room Kungstenen)

- 12.00-12.50 Lunch at Aula Magna, room Kungstenen
- 12.50-13.15 Welcome
- 13.15-13.45 Torbjørn Skardhamar: Predicting youth crime at the year of birth
- 13.50-14.20 Britt Østergaard Larsen: Lowering the minimum age of criminal responsibility: consequences for juvenile crime and education
- 14.25-14.55 Therese Bay-Smidt Christensen: The consequences of work-related violent victimization
- 15.00-15.15 Coffee
- 15.15-15.45 Ben Matthews: The Scottish Offenders Index in comparative context: challenges and opportunities
- 15.50-16.20 Susan McVie: Patterns of offending and conviction: What can be learned from linking administrative and survey data?
- Short walk to the Department of Criminology
- 16.40-18.00 Reception and seminar with Sten-Åke Stenberg; Born in 1953: The Stockholm Birth Cohort Study and RELINK.
- 18.00-20.00 Free time
- 20.00 *Dinner (B.A.R., Blaiseholmsgatan 4a)

*For those who wish, we pick you up in the lobby at Hotel C at 19.40 and walk together to Restaurant B.A.R. (a 15-minute walk).

Tuesday, 20 aug: Aula Magna (room Kungstenen)

- 9.00-9.30 Christoffer Carlsson and Fredrik Sivertsson: Paternal imprisonment and offspring criminal offending: a population-based quasi-experimental study
- 9.35-10.05 Paul Nieuwbeerta: Health problems of prisoners before and after detention
- 10.10-10.40 Hilde Wermink: Community service or imprisonment: what works best? A quasi-experimental study on recidivism
- 10.45-11.00 Coffee
- 11.05-11.35 Mikko Aaltonen, Karoliina Suonpää and Sasu Tyni: Sociodemographic background of convicted offenders in Finland during 1987–2015 – stability or change?
- 11.40-12.10 Olof Bäckman, Felipe Estrada and Anders Nilsson: Biased Policing? Police initiated drug testing in Sweden 1995–2015. Some preliminary results from full population data
- Short walk to the Department of Criminology
- 12.15-13.15 Lunch, summary discussion and future plans