

Nordic Research Council for Criminology

Nordic Research Council for Criminology (NSfK) Research Seminar 2024
Åhus Seaside, Åhus, Sweden

Program

Monday May 13th

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-14:15 Welcome by NSfK chair Professor Heidi Mork Lomell (NO) (SandStrand)

14:15-15:15 Plenary session I (SandStrand)

Markus Kaakinen (FI): Nordic Juvenile Crime: Current challenges and evidence-based prevention.

Chair: Heidi Mork Lomell

15:15-15:45 Coffee break

15:45-16:45 Plenary Session II (SandStrand)

Katharina Tollin (SE): Children and youth in criminal networks.

Chair: Linda Kjær Minke

16:45-17:00 Short break

17:00-18:30 Parallel sessions

Panel 1: Police interventions and youths (Strand)	Panel 2: Crime in the Nordics: then and now (Sand)	Panel 3: Decision-making and perceptions in courts and boards (Bryggan)
Chair: Zoran Vasiljevic	Chair: Maria Libak Pedersen	Chair: Annick Prieur
Standardisation, discretion and evidence-based practice in the police's person-oriented prevention Pernille Erichsen Skjevraak	The Historical Criminal Statistics of the Nordic Countries 1810-2022 Miikka Vuorela	Judges' perceptions on regional sentencing disparities in Finland Tiina Malin
Icelandic police students' attitudes toward routine police armament Guðmundur Oddson	Youth Without Crime. Punishment, Welfare and Youth in Denmark, 1970-2020 Lea Brinkgaard	Restorative Justice in the Danish Youth Crime Katrine Barnekow Rasmussen
Datafication and discretion - early intervention and forecasting youth crime Helene Gundhus	Finnish forensics data 1926-1954 Marko Piipponen	Anger in court Annick Prieur
The Impact of Police Arrests on Subsequent Delinquent Behavior among Malmö Youths: A Propensity Score Matching Approach Zoran Vasiljevic	Youth Crime Developments in Denmark Maria Libak Pedersen

19:00 Dinner

Award ceremony: Best Article 2023 in Nordic Journal of Criminology

Prisoners of process: The development of remand prisoner rates in the Nordic countries, by Emeli Lönnqvist (SE)

Tuesday May 14th

07:00-08:45 Breakfast

09:00-10:30: Parallel sessions

Panel 4: Sanctions for youths (Strand)	Panel 5: Youths in criminal gangs and severe offending (Sand)	Panel 6: Crime and criminality on the Internet (Bryggan)
Chair: Andreas Anderberg	Chair: Iina Sahramäki	Chair: Serena Yunran Zhang
Young People with Sexual Offence Convictions and "Ungdomsstraff": Combining punishment with facilitation of change and rehabilitation? Linn-Eirin Aronsen Haugen	Birds of a feather flock together"- Intersectional analysis of constructions of accountability in the online discourses surrounding "street gangs" in Finland Marja Lönnroth-Olin	Do Cybercrimes Indicate Serious Offending Behavior? A comparative study among Nordic adolescents Janne Vepsäläinen
Danish Youth Probation Service – exploring the perspectives of children Ann-Karina Henriksen	Gang-affiliated young offenders in Swedish secure residential care: An Interview Study Tove Pettersson	Incels, involuntary celibacy and internet radicalization Jan Christoffer Andersen
Punishing children. Adolescents' experiences in an Adult Criminal Justice System Theresa Dyrvig Henriksen	Recruitment of youth by organized criminal networks Katrín Sif Oddgeirsdóttir	Young people's risk behavior offline and online: Evidence from the Youth Profile Survey in Denmark Serena Yunran Zhang
Within or without: in which system should juvenile offenders be handled? Andreas Anderberg	When young life takes turn for the worst. Case studies and statistics on 15-29 years old homicide victims in Finland. Iina Sahramäki

10:30-11:00: Coffee break

11:00-12:30: Parallel sessions

Panel 7: Violence in surveys and statistics (Strand) Chair: Snorri Örn Árnason	Panel 8: Studies of drug markets and policies (Sand) Chair: Helgi Gunnlaugsson	Panel 9: Interventions and punishment (Bryggan) Chair: Susanne Alm
Exposure to and Perpetration of Violence: A quantitative study on Youth Experiences and Attitudes in Oslo Camilla Løvschall Langeland	Recruiting drug labourers. Exploring the complexities of recruitment and exploitation when young people become involved in illegal drug trading Thomas Friis Søgaaard	Framing Foster Care David Wästerfors
The Blind Spot: Assessing the increase in self-reported victimization among young Swedish women Mika Hagerlid	Conflict or co-operation? How social media platforms mediates complex relations between competing young dealers in hybrid drug markets. Nina Korshøj	Foster care and money - Issues concerning reimbursement in relation to problematic young individuals Malin Åkerström
IPV perpetration in adolescence and young adult hood – a longitudinal approach Linnea Schumacher	Illicit markets for nicotine products - Effects of criminalization on criminogenic SoMe markets. Kristoffer Aagesen	Court-imposed care orders 1988-2020: trends and outcomes in Sweden Anna Kahlmeter
Youth violence in Iceland; Shifting landscape? Snorri Örn Árnason	Drug use among young adults and public attitudes toward alternative drug policies Helgi Gunnlaugsson	Consequences of imprisonment in the Nordic countries - A literature review Susanne Alm

12:30-13:30: Lunch

13:30-14:30: Plenary Session III (SandStrand)

Margrét Valdimarsdóttir (IS): Selective Social Control of Immigrant Youth in the Nordic Countries.

Chair: Helena Huhta

14:30-14:45: Short break

14:45-15:45: Plenary Session IV (SandStrand)

Britt Østergaard Larsen & Tea Torbenfeldt Bengtsson (DK): New forms of punishment in Denmark - when children involved in crime are sanctioned with child welfare interventions and probation.

Chair: Rannveig Þórisdóttir

15:45-16:15: Coffee

16:15: Council meeting (SandStrand) and meeting with National Contact Secretaries (Bryggan)

Time off! Discover Åhus, the surroundings, or relax in the spa (295 SEK, self-cost)

19:00: Dinner

Wednesday May 15th

07:00-09:15 Breakfast

09:30-11:00: Parallel sessions

Panel 10: The prevention of youth crime (Strand) Chair: Martin Nøkleberg	Panel 11: Studies on sexual crimes and prevention (Sand) Chair: Carolina Överlien
Social control in vulnerable neighborhoods. Youth' and parents' handling of self-determination and risk Monika Grønli Rosten	Developing Bystander Intervention Strategies to Prevent Sexual Assault: Perspectives of Danish Secondary Students and Teachers. Terese Hartmann-Petersen
The Role of Neighborhood and School in the Development of Substance Use Patterns in Youth Lars Roar Frøyland	The Monster's Dilemma. Integration, Non-Integration and "Knifing Off" of Sexual Violence Perpetration in the Self-Narratives of Young Men in Norway Anja Emilie Kruse
Lost in frustration: preventive work in particularly disadvantaged areas Emma-Lisa Gångare	Sugardating among marginalized youth in Denmark – are legal measures necessary? Jeanett Bjonness
Multi-agency collaboration in youth crime prevention: Exploration of the SaLTo-model Martin Nøkleberg	Identifying Sexual Abuse in SameSex Relationships: Turning Points and MetaNarratives Carolina Överlien

11:00-11:30: Coffee break

11:30-12:30: Plenary Session V (SandStrand)

Stian Lid (NO): Youth participation in crime prevention – Risky business or the road to success?

Chair: Mikko Aaltonen

12:30: Closing remarks by NSfK chair/organizing committee

Lunch to go

X/twitter: @NSfKorg
Conference hashtag: #norcrim